Dear Parents/Carers

Phonics Decodable Reading Books

We have recently invested a lot of money in updating our book stock. From now on, your child's decodable book will be from the Read, Write Inc (RWI) scheme only. We use RWI as our phonics scheme.

You may notice your child is now on a different colour band. This is nothing to worry about and does not mean that your child's reading level has gone down.

Please ignore any stickers that are on the books – we now use the colour band on the actual book. Here is a chart to show the differences.

Your child will also bring home a free choice Reading for Pleasure book – this book is to share and enjoy with an adult.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via the school office.

Yours sincerely

C Shaw
